Zainab Akhtar:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 1 hour
- What was done day since the last scrum meeting?
 - Started to add the finalized version of the diagram into the documentations. Also started to write the explanations for the core components, such as the onboarding and offboarding flows that interact with access control and identity management.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Continue to expand and refine the explanation section to have an overview which describes the system handles at different levels.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Ensuring that the explanations aren't overly complicated.

Michael Alvarez:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 1 hour
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Initiated writing small summaries for each of the requirements to ensure the purpose is clear. Also went over wording to make sure it is consistent with the documentation and requirements.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Verify that each description for the requirements is clear and maps to a process or component.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Avoid repeating requirements.

Javier Espinosa:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
 - 1 hour
- What was done since the last scrum meeting?
 - Went over the access control tools and identity management tool to make sure they fit well in the documented architecture. Also made some adjustments for consistency and clarity in terminology.
- What is planned to be done until the next scrum meeting?
 - Add a section for justification to explain why and how it fits the system.
- What are the hurdles?
 - Making sure to keep the explanations non-technical.

Joseph Avalos:

- How many hours did I work since the last meeting?
